LOVE DRIVE GIRL TO DEATH.

It was known yesterday that Miss Mary E. W. was who committed suicide by walking into Lake Michigan at the foot of Fifty-sixth street, Chicago, was dependent because an illness that was largely imaginary prevented her marrying a devoted sweetheart. A search of her room disclosed brief farewell messages to her father, and the man she had hoped to marry George Mansfield, a traveling salesman of E. Paso, Texas. Miss W. had often to a friend in "jump into the lake if she did not soon see a letter from her father." The girl graduated from a private seminary in El Paso and broke down from a certain some months ago. Since the death of her mother, ten years ago, the young woman, who had just passed her twenty-first birthday, spent most of her time with her sister, Mrs. E. French, at El Paso. It was there, as a school girl, several years ago, that she first met and fell in love with Mansfield. Her relatives approved the match, but prevented a wedding ceremony taking place last spring, because of her mental condition. This, it is said, aggravated her ailment. In the hope that a change would improve her condition, she was sent to another sister, Mrs. Volney Brown, at Louisville, Ky., the place of her birth. Subsequently she went to her third sister, Mrs. Miles Turpin, at Richmond, Va. Eight weeks ago her father decided that she ought to come to Chicago. For a brief time she got along nicely, but later she again began brooding because of the postponed wedding.

Dr. Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills will promptly relieve all Kidney and Bladder disorders. Sold and recommended by W. F. Creighton & Co.

ACCIDENT OR SUICIDE?

Awakened by moans which seemed to come from under her back window, at about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, Mrs. Elizabeth McCann, who keeps a boarding house at 638 West Mulberry street, Baltimore, investigated and found the unconscious body of Roy Courtney, who had been stopping with one of her boarders for the last two weeks, lying on the bricks in the area under his bedroom window. Mrs. McCann aroused some of the male boarders in the house and they called in the police, who took Courtney to the Western district ambulance to the University Hospital, where he died four hours later.

Whether Courtney, who, it is thought, was a user of drugs, fell out of the window while he was in an irresponsible condition or whether he deliberately committed suicide is a question which probably never will be solved. Mrs. McCann said yesterday that she thought while Courtney was trying to open a shutter he accidentally fell out of the window. She says she knew nothing of Courtney beyond the fact that he was brought to her house about two weeks ago by a Mr. William Ross, who rents the third floor of the house. It is said, claims to know Courtney.

Courtney is believed to have come from Richmond, Va. A book was found in his room which gave his address as 518 North Seventh street, Richmond, Va. Several personal and business letters were found, but nothing was brought to light which would lead color to the theory of suicide.

DIARRHOEA CURED.

"My father has for years been troubled with diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle, of Philippi, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Philippi Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and much though sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Richard Gibson.

SETS TRAP FOR HIM.

The Annie-Hains tragedy in New York was imitated in Hawkins county, Tenn., fourteen miles north of Rogersville, yesterday, when Charles Armstrong, a prominent and wealthy cattle raiser, killed Andrew Arnold, thirty years old and a merchant.

When confronted by her husband with evidence several days ago, the woman is said to have broken down and confessed intimacy with Arnold. She begged her husband not to do anything rash, though he armed himself and sought the alleged despoiler of his home.

This occurred two days ago. Failing to find him, he returned home, and was preparing to leave his wife. Yesterday he announced as a ruse that he was going to Rogersville on business, but instead went only a few miles. He returned to his home three hours later and found his wife in company with Arnold.

He entered the house without being seen, and, coming out with a shotgun and a rifle, entered the contents of the shotgun into Arnold's breast. The latter was killed instantly, but Armstrong fired several shots into his body with the rifle.

Arnold asked to be allowed to explain and begged Armstrong for a moment's time, when he saw him coming toward him with the two guns, but the latter, without uttering a word, leveled the weapon and fired, following this with the use of the rifle.

The woman was a witness to the tragedy, and fainted.
